

Day 107: Jerusalem during “Al-Aqsa Flood” Operation

January 21, 2024

On the 107th day of “Al-Aqsa Flood Operation,” the siege imposed on Al-Aqsa Mosque continued, and the raids on towns and neighborhoods in the city of Jerusalem continued.

The Wadi Hilweh Information Center - Jerusalem, citing eyewitnesses, explained that the forces stationed at the gates of Al-Aqsa are stopping all those arriving there, randomly preventing entry to it, and imposing restrictions on entry.

The forces also continued to spread in the Damascus Gate area, stopping young men and students, and searching their school bags.

In the Al-Thori neighborhood in the town of Silwan, the forces stormed a private land belonging to the Shweiki family in an attempt to demolish a retaining wall to build a public street in the place. The residents confronted them, and during that, the forces assaulted the young men by beating them and arrested 4 of them, namely: Ahmed Shweiki, Mohammad Shweiki, Amjad Shweiki, and Mahmoud Shweiki.

The forces stormed Shu’fat refugee camp several times and arrested 3 young.

The forces stormed the Bi’er Ayoub neighborhood in Silwan, arrested a boy, and referred him for investigation.
