

Day 130: Jerusalem during "Al-Aqsa Flood" Operation

February 13, 2024

On the 130th day of "Al-Aqsa Flood Operation", the occupation authorities continued to impose their restrictions on the entry of Muslims into the Al-Aqsa Mosque, and the raids into the towns and neighborhoods of the city of Jerusalem continued.

The Wadi Hilweh Information Center – Jerusalem explained that the occupation forces continued to impose their restrictions on worshipers entering the Al-Aqsa Mosque, by preventing the young men from entering it, and searching all those arriving to the Al-Aqsa after they were stopped at the gates of the mosque.

The settlers' incursions into Al-Aqsa continued, and 185 extremists carried out their incursions into Al-Aqsa through Dung Gate under the guard of the Israeli occupation forces.

The forces carried out a raid on the Shu'fat refugee camp, and raided a house belonging to the Zalbani family and blew up its door and destroyed the entire contents of the house, and the forces fired grenades in the refugee camp and were deployed in its streets.

The forces also raided the village of Issawiya, and arrested the young man Mohammad Darwish.

In the town of Silwan, the forces arrested the young man Sultan Samer Sarhan; Sarhan was released in the prisoners' exchange deal late last year.
