

Day 153: Jerusalem during “Al-Aqsa Flood” Operation

March 7, 2024

On the 153rd day of "Al-Aqsa Flood Operation", the occupation authorities continued to impose restrictions on the entry of worshipers to Al-Aqsa, and the incursions into the towns and neighborhoods in the city of Jerusalem continued.

The Wadi Hilweh Information Center - Jerusalem explained that the occupation authorities continue to impose restrictions on worshipers entering Al-Aqsa; by deploying the forces and remaining stationed at the gates of Al-Aqsa and stopping those entering it, and randomly preventing entry, especially for young men and women.

The center added that the forces placed the iron barriers at the entrance of Lions Gate- the road leading to Al-Aqsa - late on Thursday evening, and last week they had placed the barriers at the entrance of Lions Gate- one of the gates of the Old City, and in Al-Ghazali Square leading to Al-Aqsa.

Settler incursions into Al-Aqsa also continued, and 205 settlers carried out their incursions into Al-Aqsa, through Dung Gate, guarded by the Israeli occupation forces.

On the other hand, the forces continued the incursions into the towns and neighborhoods in Jerusalem, and continued to set up police checkpoints.

The forces continued to issue expulsion orders from Al-Aqsa, and to summon young men and women from Jerusalem and the Palestinian 1948 lands, days before the start of the month of Ramadan.
