

Day 15: Al-Aqsa Flood Operation in Jerusalem

October 21, 2023

On the fifteenth day of “Al-Aqsa Flood” Operation, the occupation forces continued their siege on the Old City and Al-Aqsa Mosque, raiding neighborhoods, towns, and homes, and erecting mobile checkpoints.

The forces were deployed at the gates of the Old City and Al-Aqsa, around the clock, especially in conjunction with the times of the prayers, and strict restrictions were imposed on entry into the Old City and Al-Aqsa, in a procedure that has been in place for two weeks.

The forces deliberately arrested young men at the gates of the Old City, examined their identities, physically searched them, and conducted field investigations with them.

The groups of the alleged temple called for storming Al-Aqsa on Sunday, to hold prayers in support of “the army.” The groups said in a statement that the prayers will include public figures and rabbis and will be held at ten o'clock in the eastern region.

The occupation forces stormed the neighborhoods of the town of Silwan, carried out arrests, and issued summonses to several young men.
