April 8, 2024

On the 185th day of "Al-Aqsa Flood Operation", raids and arrests continued in the city of Jerusalem.

The Wadi Hilweh Information Center - Jerusalem explained that the occupation forces stormed the Bab al-Rahma prayer hall in Al-Aqsa before dawn, assaulted the worshipers, and arrested two foreign Muslims.

As worshipers flocked to the dawn prayer, the harassment of the young men began, by trying to obstruct their entry to Al-Aqsa and determining the gates through which entry is permitted, in addition to preventing some from entering without a reason, stopping them, searching them, and checking their identities. The forces also arrested a young woman from the courtyards of Al-Aqsa.

At dawn, forces stormed Shu'fat refugee camp and the town of Anata, and arrested two young men.

in the afternoon hours, the forces stormed the village of Issawiya, deployed in its neighborhoods, and raided the house of the prisoner Iyad Ziad Alayan, searched it and destroyed its contents.

On the other hand, the forces arrested the young man, Qassam Al-A'war, in front of the Magistrate Court, coinciding with a court hearing for his brother Nasrallah, noting that the two brothers were released as part of an exchange deal last November.

This evening, the forces arrested a young woman as soon as she left Al-Aqsa, after performing the Taraweeh prayers.
