

Day 191: Jerusalem during “Al-Aqsa Flood” Operation

April 14, 2024

On the 191st day of "Al-Aqsa Flood Operation", dozens of settlers carried out their incursions into Al-Aqsa Mosque, while the raids on towns and neighborhoods in Jerusalem continued.

On Sunday, 182 settlers stormed Al-Aqsa courtyards, “130 during the morning incursions period and 50 during the afternoon,” guarded by the occupation forces.

The settler groups were led by rabbis, who performed prayers and held private lessons in Al-Aqsa. They also performed collective public prayers while walking in Al-Aqsa courtyards.

The raids on Al-Aqsa returned on Sunday, 16 days after they were stopped, during the last ten days of Ramadan and the days of Eid al-Fitr.

The forces stormed the village of Issawiya and arrested two boys.

In the Ein al-Lozeh neighborhood in the town of Silwan, the forces chased boys while they were playing with a “plastic rifle,” stopped them, and confiscated it from them.

The police announced the arrest of 370 Palestinians from the city of Jerusalem, under the pretext of attempting to enter or reside illegally in Jerusalem, and also arrested 25 young men on suspicion of “transporting them,” explaining that on Saturday they arrested 10 Palestinians at the Al-Z’ayem checkpoint and 18 at the Hizma checkpoint.
