On the 225th day of "Al-Aqsa Flood Operation", Israeli forces continued their deployment in the streets of Jerusalem.

Meanwhile, arrests of Palestinians holding West Bank IDs continue, under the pretext of “entering Jerusalem illegally.”

During the last week, the police arrested 370 Palestinians on the pretext of entering Jerusalem illegally, and 35 suspects who helped transporting them.

The young man, Ibrahim Al-Razem – a truck driver – is receiving treatment in the hospital, after sustaining various bruises and wounds after he was attacked last weekend by dozens of settlers on the road to the city of Nablus.
