

Day 230 Jerusalem during “Al-Aqsa Flood” Operation

May 23, 2024

On the 230th day of "Al-Aqsa Flood Operation", dozens of settlers stormed Al-Aqsa Mosque, and forces continued their raids into towns and neighborhoods in the city of Jerusalem.

On Thursday, 131 settlers stormed Al-Aqsa Mosque, through the Dung Gate, guarded by the occupation forces.

The settlers performed their prayers during the storming of Al-Aqsa.

The Jerusalemite prisoner, Mohammad Ali Al-Ghoul, was released after the end of his 30-month sentence, and he was summoned for investigation immediately after his release to the “Salah al-Din Street” police station.

After detention and investigation, the police released him on the condition that he be deported from Jerusalem until next Sunday.

The occupation authorities continue work on a plot of land in the Sheikh Jarrah neighborhood to hold the special “Torchlight” ceremony, which will be held on Saturday evening until after midnight on Sunday.

The Public Prosecution filed an indictment against two young Palestinians from the city of Hebron to the District Court.
