

Day 86: Jerusalem during “Al-Aqsa Flood” Operation

December 31, 2023

On the 86th day of “Al-Aqsa Flood Operation”, the young man, Al-Mu’tasim Billah Aweisat, was seriously injured after bullets were fired at him in the “Mishor Adomim” area, east of the city of Jerusalem, while the occupation authorities continued their siege of the blessed Al-Aqsa Mosque, and the raids on towns and neighborhoods in Jerusalem continued.

Serious injury and home invasion. Arrests

The young Palestinian man, Al-Mu’tasim Billah Aweisat, was seriously injured after bullets were fired at him under the pretext of "carrying out a stabbing attack" in the Mishor Adomim area, east of Jerusalem.

The Israeli police said in a statement that the young man stabbed two guards in the Mishor Adomim industrial zone, and they sustained minor injuries.

The Wadi Hilweh Information Center - Jerusalem learned that the forces stormed the home of the young man Aweisat in the town of Al-Sawahreh Al-Sharqiyeh, carried out a search of his house, and then arrested his parents and brother.

Violent confrontations broke out around the young man's house, and the forces used live bullets and bombs, and several injuries were recorded at the scene.

The siege of Al-Aqsa continues

The occupation authorities continued their siege of Al-Aqsa Mosque, imposing restrictions on entry and allowing only the elderly and women to enter.

The forces also continue to station themselves at the gates of Al-Aqsa, checking identities and conducting inspections of all those arriving there.

The raids on towns and neighborhoods in the city of Jerusalem continued.

The forces carried out separate arrests from the city, while 3 boys turned in themselves to Megiddo prison, after spending several months under house arrest.
